CHIEF COURT OF MYSORE

1916

Telegraphic Address. "JUSTICE"

Bangalore, dated 19th July 1923.

No. 146 Circular

FROM

A. SREENIVASARAGAVACHARI, ESQ., B.,A.. B.L.,
Registrar, Chief Court of Mysore.

TO.

21 JUL 1923

K. Matthan, Esq., B.A.,
Chief Secretary to the Government of
His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, Bangalore.

SIR,

I am directed to advert to Civil Rule of Practice No.75 dated the 1st August 1888 in the matter of renewal of pleadership certificates embodied in Chief Court Notification No.R. Dis.47 of 21-22 dated 7th June 1922, and to state that the rules do not provide sufficient safeguards for renewal applications being submitted before the due date and donot ensure that pleaders who have not renewed their certificates are not allowed to practise in courts. The rules, morecver, do not specifically authorise a practitioner, who has applied for renewal, to continue to practise pending the receipt of the renewal certificate; nor is there any means for the Chief Court to know which pleader has not renewed his certificate for a particular year and why.

2. With a view, therefore, to remedy these inconveniences, the Chief Court has framed the accompanying draft rules on the point, to which I am to request that Government may be plased to accord their sanction.

I have the honour to be,

Your most obedient servant,

REGISTRAR. 20/7/23

TMN/

IN THE CHIEF COURT OF MYSORE AT BANGALORE.

Notification No.R.Dis.

dated the 11th July 1923.

The Chief Court directs that the following be substituted for Clause (3) of rule V of Notification No.R.Dis.47 of 1921-22 dated 7th June 1922 in regard to the admission of pleaders, the succeeding rules being numbered as 4, 5, 6 and 7 :--

3. Every application for the renewal of a certificate under Section 12 of the Mysore Legal Practitioners Regulation III of 1884, shall be submitted through the Judge presiding in the Court in which the pleader ordinarily practises and (unless the Chief Court otherwise orders) shall be made not later than the 15th of November of the year preceding that for which the certificate has to be renewed. and unless the Judge is himself the District Judge, shall be transmitted through the District Judge to the Registrar, Chief Court not later than the 30th idem with such remarks as the presiding Judge considers necessary. The renewed certificate shall be issued as soon as possible and shall be dated the 1st of January of the year to which it relates.

4. The District or presiding Judge shall, on being satisfied that a renewal of certificate has been applied for by a pleader, permit him to practise pending receipt of the renewed certificate.

5. When a pleader who has not been suspended from practice applies for the renewal of his certificate after the expiry of the period prescribed, he should forward with the application for renewal an affidavit explaining the delay and when he applies for the renewal after the expiry of the year for which it was last renewed, he should further state in his affidavit that he has not practised in any court since the expiry of the year for which his certificate was last renewed.

6. If a person having obtained a certificate should fail to renew it for a period of two years, he shall not be entitled to have it renewed without special orders of the Chief Court and shall be required to produce satisfactory testimonials as to his character during the period.

7. District Judges shall, not later than the 1st February of every year, submit to the Chief Court a list of the names of pleaders who have not renewed their certificates in their Divisions for that year with brief reasons for their non-renewal, and subordinate courts shall submit a similar list to the District Judge not later than the 15th of January.
